No time for a hit and run on your own
We are not prey of shiftless echoes
Believe me when I say we are on a roll

Dream sellers try to play on us
Priceless support. Cheating egos
For the record, we've wrecked inside deep holes

It took us forever to get here. Show us for it
Tie your headband on just in case

Enough to say, no matter what we'll stay
Enough to say, we are digging up lost faith Enough to say, let's blow brains out tonight and we'll lie on the stars
Enough to say, steps will be taken

Last call for the fears of further distress
We're not dropping off from a better state

It took us forever to get here. Show us for it
From somewhere we'll go down to hell.
Breathe in deep as flames fill our breasts

Once you break the puzzle the pieces start to play
We start to play!
