The Shore
"It Ain't Right"

Heartbreak, youre taking all my strength away,
Move on, breaking it down in your own way,
But now youre gone and Ive been down, nowhere to stay,
Its all lost, feeling blind, I can take the blame.

But we're all on the outside,
Everyones staring in,
Nobody understands it,
Chasing the tracks of my sins,
It aint right, I know,
It aint right, I know,
Baby come on.

Burned out basement, baby I dont wanna go,
And you know, baby its true, and you gotta show,
And Ive been down, driving you outta my mind,
But you know whats in store, and youre gonna find.

Were all on the outside,
Everyones staring in,
Nobody understands it,
Chasing the tracks of my sins,
It aint right, I know,
It aint right, I know,
Baby come on,
Baby come on, yeah.

Were all on the outside,
Everyones staring in,
Nobody understands it,
Chasing the tracks of my sins,
It aint right, I know,
It aint right, I know,
It aint right, I know,
It aint right, I know,
Baby come on,
Ooh, baby come on,
Ooh, baby come on,
Yeah, baby come on.

It aint right.
