sex bought and sold so easily on their billboards and tv.
we're all so hungry, lusty eyed with shallow hearts and
empty lives.
with endless love we left you sleeping.
now we're sleeping with you.
don't wake up.
we're all so hungry lusty eyed with shallow hearts and
empty lives.
all the girls so hard trying, each day dying a little more.
shattered hearts and broken bodies, innocence lost
and forgotten.
shattered hearts are broken.
don't wake up.
we're all so hungry lusty eyed with shallow hearts and
empty lives.
all the girls so hard trying, each day dying a little more.
shattered hearts and broken bodies, innocence lost
and forgotten.
tear it up c'mon.
we left you sleeping, now we're sleeping with you.
don't wake up, don't wake up.
add up the dollar signs and sex and see what you've been sold.
