in one shot you showed me what i was missing
and that i've got to make you mine somehow.
in one shot i knew it was you i should be kissing and that i've got no regrets, no apologies.
and i do believe this is the first year of our lives,
and i do believe this is our summer of love.
hey why don't we go, me and you.
hey what do i know, it's just you and me and your face is all i see.
thank you lord for the one who sees through me,
the girl of my dreams and our first year.
