Deadly nightshade
makes for make up try and find a reason to wake up hostility is only a mask this 'Don Juan' is afraid to ask

I can see my skin fading away my bleeding heart is on display I can see my skin fading my bleeding heart is turning gray closet wonder man wears his cape wants to save the world but he fears his fate

my bleeding heart is turning gray

they're not ready he's not ready nobody's ready for him fading away from view now this powerful child slowly ghosting...

I can see my shadow fading away my bleeding heart is fading away I can see my sorrow today my bleeding heart has died today
