It makes me sick hanging out with you Ever since I found out you've got someone new Take your time, I'll believe your lies Because I don't want to think about you hanging with Other guys
I should've known right from the start
That you were going to be the one to break my heart
It makes me sad to realize the truth
The time that we spent didn't mean a thing to you Tell me why, I'll believe your lies Because I don't want to listen to my brain for any advice
This guy that you've been seeing, what's he really got on

Me?
Every time I try to talk you turn your fucking back on me
I don't want to know about the games you've been playing
All I really want is honest conversation please Don't turn it all around on me
This guy that you've been seeing, what's he really got
on
Me?
Every time I try to talk you turn your fucking back on me
I should've known right from the start
That you were going to be the one to fucking break my Heart
You fucking break my heart
You fucking break me
