Time to wake up, time to get sick, you're alone again
You've got a sad heart, in a bad way, and it's all
Coming down again, I know
Time to wake up, time to let go, it's all the same
You've got a sad heart, in a bad way, and it's all
Coming round again, I know
That it's hard to let it go, when your heart's not in Control
And it makes it hard to think about anything
Sometimes it makes me want to cry
This time it's all on you
Good luck, I'll see you when you die
Please let light ring through
Sometimes it makes me want to cry
This time it's all on you
Good luck, I hope that when you die
This life is over
Your heart is a mess, don't live in regret, it's life,
Don't live in sorrow
Someday when it ends, the time that we spent on this
Won't matter tomorrow
No tomorrow
Sometimes it makes me want to cry
This time it's all on you
Good luck, I'll see you when you die
Please let light ring through
Sometimes it makes me want to cry
This time it's all on you
Good luck, I hope that when you die
This life is over
Your head is a mess, you're losing your piece of mind,
It's over
The world is a mess, you're filled with regret and Lies, it's over
Time to wake up, time to get sick, you're alone again
You've got a sad heart, in a bad way
