She comes on strong but so restrained
She loves just to play, but don't know the game
She owns the scene, but new around
So I'm stepping up and she breaks me down

Her mama's dance with her skirt cut high
I'll take the car, and she'll ride her bike
So let's keep it clean, and keep things quiet
You'll say you just stayed at a friend's for the night

Meet me back behind the bleachers
And I'll kiss you if you want

Attention I can hardly stand
Move up real close, but don't hold my hand
They will never understand
You be my girl, and I'll be your man

Meet me back behind the bleachers
And I won't tell no one
Meet me back behind the bleachers
And I'll kiss you if you want

Guitar solo

Meet me back behind the bleachers
I'll kiss you if you want
Meet me back behind the bleachers
And I won't tell your mom
