So try living life instead of hiding in the bedroom
Show me a smile and I'll promise not to leave you"
It happened under a rainy cloud
Passing through the dark South
We went into a big house
And slept in a small bed
I didn't know you then
As well as you love me
We talked of our sad lives
And we went off separately
And we went off separately
I found your overseas souvenirs
Holiday greeting cards
Those long forgotten high school fears
