Summer dress makes you more beautiful than the rest

Loveliest girl that I know and the sweetest

Spends her life inside, she thinks she isn't blessed

Summer dress separates you from the rest

Easiest days of her life have been spent

Wonders if she is loved, if she is missed

Says a prayer as she's kissed by ocean mist

Takes herself to the sand and dreams

Says a prayer as she's kissed by ocean mist

Takes herself to the sand and dreams
