You speak with the loudest and clearest of tones
Forever guarded by what you've known
And it's not a problem when I interfere
Hold off all guesses 'til all's sincere
Do you want me all alone?

Remembering what you said
I can't get you out of my head
Maybe that's not so bad
To be going home in the end

To connect our separate scenes
To win this war, it's one truth meant to me

One time you erased handicap
Mourning my heart felt but you fixed that
Do you want me all alone?
Do you want to go to Rome, or Greece dear?
Do you want to fall asleep, minus fear?

Remembering what you said
I can't get you out of my head
Maybe that's not so bad
To be going home in the end

To connect our separate scenes
To win this war, it's one truth meant to me

Love you lots and the pictures follow
Love you more when inside my room
Loving friends, don't it burn like sorrow?
Finally figured how to right a bitter wrong

Ride you all along, and now I'm hearing nothing but a song

Remembering what you said
I can't get you out of my head
Maybe that's not so bad
To be going home in the end

To connect our separate scenes
To win this war, it's one truth meant to me
