From the locker room of our high school,
To the walk in closet of your bedroom
Your parents disapprove
Oh loves to cool
And I'm just too damn smooth

I'm jumping off the roof of my room
I'd break both of my legs to get to you
I've warn out my welcome in their home
So I come when they're asleep

Girl get dressed
I'll meet you at midnight
We're gonna share a dance
Under the streetlights
Fuck your parents
And your brother's bed time
Because this will be our last dance tonight

Well this suck
Every single night,
Every single time
This is my last try
I'll show them
Won't I?

So farewell to your parents
Because this will be the last time
That they ever see us alive

From the backseat of your parents car
To your best friends house
Where they think you are
Your parents disapprove
Oh oh I love you
Man if they only knew

I'm jumping off the roof of my room
I'd break both of my legs to get to you
I've warn out my welcome in their home
So I come when they're asleep and they'll never know

Girl get dressed
I'll meet you at midnight
We're gonna share a dance
Under the streetlights
Fuck your parents
And your brother's bed time
Because this will be our last dance tonight

Well this sucks
Every single night
Every single time
This is my last try
I'll show them
won't I?

So farewell to your parents
Because this will be the last time

Expect a knock
On your window
At 12 o'clock we'll be alone
Asleep
And now I'm home
Your parents will never know
She says don't go, just don't go
I can't make it alone
She says she says don't go, just don't go
Cuz I can't make it on my own

Girl get dressed
Fuck your parents
Because this will be our last dance tonight

Well this sucks
Every single night
Every single time
This is my last try
won't I?

Yeah so fuck to parents
Because this will be the last time
That they ever see us alive

It's down the mud
I'm holding a gun

I'm sitting at the bottom of the ocean
My love
The only one
With her arms wide open
She says don't go, just don't go
She says just know, that if you go, well then I will follow

I will follow
She said I will follow (Whoo!)

She says don't go, just don't go
