This will never work
'Cause it's too late, and you are too drunk
And I'm in love with her

You haven't heard?
I'm older and wiser
And less of a jerk

And it's becoming a curse
I'm too handsome for my own good
And it's starting to hurt

You've been burned
Over and over
And now you're beginning to learn

Mm, mm, to learn, to learn,
Yeah, to learn, to learn

Girl, just let your guard down
Oh, I wanna see that side of you
Until it's light out
No, we'll party 'til the afternoon
Oh, oh, oh oh oh, oh, oh

The time is right now
To get you in the mood
To get you in the mood

While you lean on the wall,
I'm taking down numbers
That I just don't intend to call
I've been wronged once in my life,
And tonight, I've forgotten them all

And she looked so sexy, but it wasn't my fault
She looked so sexy, but I won't call
She looked so sexy, but it wasn't my fault
She looked so sexy, but I won't call

Girl, just let your guard down

Oh, I wanna see that side of you
Until it's light out
No, we'll party 'til the afternoon
Oh, oh, oh oh oh, oh, oh

The time is right now
To get you in the mood
To get you in the mood

Oh, the time is right now, yeah
Let's get this party going
Everybody freak out
And move in a forward motion

Kick your legs now, yeah
Like you were in the ocean
Swim out to me, yeah
My arms are always open

The time is right now, yeah
And move in a foreward motion

Kick your legs now, yeah
Swim out to me my arms are always open

Girl, just let your guard down
Oh, I wanna see that side of you
Until it's light out
No, we'll party 'til the afternoon

And the time is right now

Oh, the time is right now, yeah
Everybody freak out

Kick your legs now, yeah
