I feel my neck, check my pulse,
I feel nothing at all.
If I die of a broken heart tell my friends it's all your fault.

You do voodoo to keep me loving you.
You do voodoo so I'll do anything for you.
You do what you do.
You do voodoo so I'll do anything for you.

I pull the pins from my chest and the string from my neck.
If I die this loveless tell my friends that you did this.

You do voodoo to keep me loving you.
You do voodoo so I'll do anything for you.
You do what you do.
You do voodoo so I'll do anything for you
