I come over, early in the morning
Just like a heat wave without warning
And when I touch you my heart begins to flutter
Cause you're smooth and creamy like peanut butter

Girl, I wanna lay you down
I said girl, I wanna lay you down

I'm gonna flood you like a love river
Ah, baby the postman is about to deliver
I cook you up some dinner, a little pasta
Listen to some music, a little rasta

I said girl, I wanna lay you down
I said girl, I wanna lay you down
Girl, I wanna lay you down

Ah baby, baby
Don't you know I need your love?!

So turn out the lights, bring out the candles
Wrap your arms around my love handles
They say that passion may not always endure
But this feeling that I have for you is burning up my world

Girl, I wanna lay you down
I said girl, I wanna lay you down
Girl, I wanna lay you down
Girl, I wanna lay you down
Girl, I wanna lay you down
Girl, I wanna lay you down...
