she' got demons in her eyes when they call to me they pull at my insides something curses in the night every night drive you mad with their distorted lullabyes shut your wicked mouth bite your liars tongue you can't hide from what you've done when you call out my name love when you call out and noones there to answer you when you call out and your voice it echoes back at you when you call out my name i'm like a child in her arms seeking refuge from those who'd do me harm yet she could kill me with a kiss give me that kiss i'd give my life to drink from her perfect poision lips a day of reckoning this time you can't outrun you must face what you have done and all that i have left is just a faded memory in my heart we'll always be together for eternity yet i'm so easily decieved by every lie this ain't home tonight this ain't home we'll be home tonight we'll be home
