"Kissing Her"

i count the faces in the sand 1, 2, 3 she got her eyes of shattered glass they cut right through me like a glowing amber brush fire quivers in the mist can't wash away the taste of every dirty boy you've kissed say uh oh but you know it's alright goodbye love
she leave me high and dry lost downtown but everytime i sing like this she come back around then leave me running like a mad man sick from my disease praying like a saint she gonna get her hooks in me say uh oh uh oh uh oh but you know it's alright where were you where were you when it all came down again
here she come here she come she really move me baby here she come here she come carve your name into my wrist and i'll tell you why i've got a reason to exist and a reason to die goodbye love
