Mountains high
The wind blows
And I just follow
The fire's hot
Your eyes have blown
My skin's aflame
And heaven knows

Your hair's like ice
A smile that burns
Your eyes - the truth
See right through me

When you're around
I lose myself
A fire king like nothing else

And I feel alive when you're near me
And I cannot hide my tears
When you hold me

When you love me
It's like fire
And the world's aflame
I can feel it
Deep inside me
You're the fire king

The rain could fall
Alone and cold
The wind could blow
But you're life
Need none
You can face it all

Eyes so bright

A smile that burns
You see the truth
And no one love me
When you're around
I lose myself
A fire king
And no one else

And I feel alive when you're near me
And I cannot my tears
When you hold me

I feel (I feel)
Alive when you're near me
And I cannot hide my tears
When you hold me

When you love me
It's like fire
And the world's a flame
I can feel it
Deep inside me
You're the fire king
