"MY NAME IS SHAME"

I'm all alone with my thoughts and feeling lonely in this crowded room...just how close are we to taking this too far?...gaze into the haze and find a star...it's who we are the day I was born they gave me a name they slapped my ass and called me shame I try to make a change, but it stays the same
my name is shame
if shame's a game this game is lame born to succeed and choose to lose...I was so concrete when so confused...poker faces beg - amuse us if you can...turning heads is dead...get beneath our skin gaze into the haze and find a star...gaze into the haze, it's who we are...force a smile only when provoked...showing all your teeth to let them know...cornered creatures jumping at the chance to self-preserve...the nerve of self-defense
