Everytime I think about it
Something strong comes over me
Never will I live to doubt it
That you and I were simply meant to be
How could we have given up so easy
When we had so much worth fighting for
* If only we had worked it out together
Through it all
If only we talked a little longer
And broken down the walls
If only we had held each other tighter
You'd might still be with me
Everytime I dream about it
I picture what we should have done
But how can I forget it
When life with you had only just begun
Now I sit alone thinkin' about us
Wondering where we would have been today
* Repeat
I don't know if I can take it anymore
I'm fighting on for you, but I'm losing the war
So tell me what I should do
To get back inside of you
Once again
* Repeat
