Thanks to my friend's jerk boyfriend
We ended up hanging and then
You showed up and we were kickin' it
Watching movies late at night

And through the night we kept on laughing
Driving all our friends a little insane
And then I had to kiss you
Cause you were so ridiculously cute
And now I know you're everything too

Stay! If I get lost along the way
And I start fighting windmills
Trying to make sense of everything that don't make sense
Well can't you hold me down?
Closer to the ground
When everything is spinning around
I hope that you will stay

And as time went on and our love grew strong
You were saving lives, I was writing songs
Don't know if you believed that I would go away
And now I'm on a plane this is what I gotta say
Everywhere I go you're right there with me
But should I stumble and fall one day
And lose my grip, baby won't you

Stay! If I get lost along the way
And I start fighting windmills
Trying to make sense of everything that don't make sense
Well can't you hold me down?
Closer to the ground
When everything is spinning around
I hope that you will stay

What are you gonna do?
I really want you, I really do
When I pick up the phone
Will you be there?
Thousands of miles

Everyday I need to know that you will

Stay! If I get lost along the way

And I start fighting windmills

Trying to make sense of everything that donâ€™t
make sense

Well canâ€™t you hold me down?

Closer to the ground

When everything is spinning around

I hope that you will stay, stay
