Youâ€™re sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Thereâ€™s a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to me

Every time our eyes meet
I know youâ€™re sugar sweet

We were sitting at our favorite table
With Alyssa, Aaron, Jojo
Waiting for our number, on the Westside of San Antonio
Hadnâ€™t told you, but I really tried to
I came close but something came up
But this time is the only time left to say

Youâ€™re sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Thereâ€™s a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to me

Just hold on
I wonâ€™t be long
And if Iâ€™m weak
Will you be strong?

Youâ€™re sugar sweet
I know that when our eyes meet
And something melts inside
Thereâ€™s a feeling I cannot hide
And then it all turns upside down
You like to turn things around, and it gets to me

Every time our eyes meet
Youâ€™re sugar sweet
