Come to me

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Come to me

As a little, little girl, I by mummy, mummy heard
There's a tale to fear about a maniac out there
Playing wicked wicked sounds with a fiddle, fiddle loud
When the din you hear, put your fingers in the air

But no one knows how the story goes

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Oh, is it wrong or right?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
Is he alive, alive?

Oh, is it wrong or right?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
Alive, alive

Come to me
Come to me

All the little, little girls and the pretty, pretty boys
Getting hypnotized when they listen to the noise
And then run, run away on his corner, corner to Where they get breded with other creatures of the woods

But no one knows how the story goes

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Oh, is it wrong or right?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
Is he alive, alive?

Oh, is it wrong or right?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
Alive, alive

Oh no, put your fingers in the air
Put your fingers in the
Put your fingers in the
Put your fingers in the air

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Is he alive? Is he alive?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
That in a mine, in a mine he hides

Oh, is it wrong or right?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
Is he alive, alive?

Oh, is it wrong or right?
Oh, is it wrong or right?
Alive, alive
