everywhere you are
is everywhere you've been just lost to the beat punching through your skin you don't know what to do but still you wanna crawl all through the broken glass that's everywhere you are

your love must always be true
your love must always be you

anywhere you go
even if you're a star
it matters what you do
but if even if you've gone too far you can follow you
everywhere you are

and in your mind
you were alone
all this time
with everything you are and every smile you are still locked in your heart
everywhere you are
everywhere you are
every single shot

you're never too far
cause anywhere you go
even to the stars
all you have to do
is play the part of who you are the rest is up to you

save someone
apply yourself
everyone

on the shelf
love's a fight
born so light
you may shine

and everywhere you go
even if you're down
even if you're low
it's in the thought of you it's in the eyes of all astride a starry past

it's all a part of you whatever shoe you're putting down you can never lose me
