Party girl they call her party girl with a heart that can't be true
Party girl they call her Party girl but if she is the blame belongs on you You're the one who made her promises and she believed just like a child So now if she seems rowdy you're the reason she's so wild
[steel]
Cause you gave her love and built her up then broke her heart just like string Now she won't trust anyone she's just out to have a fling
Party girl they call her party girl but if she is the blame
belongs on you
If she is the blame belongs on you
