VERSE 1

Excuse me your Majesty we just issued your be headed tragedy Why you laughing sir we didn't mean it to be.

Silence!! Were the townspeople there to observe anarchy
The elimination of my patient while he screamed out amnesty?
He was the towns disgrace to all that we cherish to blemish our ways deserves his life to be extinguished Over with and done crown me as LORD Zeus's first son,

Should this have been done, in-front of his family,

Yes it should have, don't worry his life is on my behalf, Take his remains then burn em' to ashes, incinerate the dust, then call the angels to clean it up.

Never that we should upset his wishes, an individual with such power and obnipitants,
We shall go forth and spread the word, save the young minds from the ones that deserve, breath to be taken by lungs of steal, rust the rest of they body and flatten already unmovable wheels,

Solidify their supply, plug all holes, oxygen they take for every breath is mine
they stole,
An air tight closure, their disclosure is to die by they own hands with their legs strapped around their own shoulders, This punishment and torture is to eradicate the weak,
and destroy the deceased, infested, rest in plenty.

CHORUS:

The Alliance of both kingdoms,
Check mates the opposition,
I'm just a piece in this game,
A pond who won't listen,
A battle of war in this dimension,
A continuum that's shaken by competition,
NATURAL SELECTION!!!..

Now listen, I'm asking you one more time, do what I ask you, or otherwise, I'll sautimize the innocent, proficient is thee, the all mighty, your majesty, I own individuals and run minds like hypnotic robotics, there's no time for skeptics or non believers who disrespect it.
I'm an all seer and drink creatine mixed with carasine, just to prove to the unseen, who dreams to follow my path, any interference and I'll enithilize my wrath, in which I grasp, on on-lookers, any questions to ask, GOOD!! Now here take this maskâ€™.
Rob the rich and bring all jewels to me, For the poor just put the lonely
laymen's in a forever sleep,
Take this potion, derived from the ocean, Blasphemy, caused by phosphorus chemically imbalance handle gently, Proceed to carry and size up the situation, Be careful of it's placement, mix half in the poor mans basement, the rich man's attic, water contaminated, sanitized no longer, it's evident to non followers I'm here and it's forever,
Now don't hesitate go at once,

I replied, find a new servant for this I won't,

CHORUS:

The Alliance of both kingdoms,
Check mates the opposition,
I'm just a piece in this game,
A pond who won't listen,
A battle of war in this dimension,
A continuum that's shaken by competition,

Habitual, incorrigible is how to explain his criminal actions, indicated by pure lust indelible,
Paths that's taken, no limitations, by corrupted minds,
No literal thought, what was seen was what was sought, The labyrinth he created for us to travel, death to rebellions for whom that he sampled, His power of light that blistered the lime, liquefy the bone bristle no logic reason or why, We followed orders, or else the consequence was slaughters,
A prophetic Apocalyptic, with theatrics of abundance, a God of war to bow at his presence, no tolerance, for incompetence, I fell to compel, and disobeyed his way, operate to abandoned the subconscious for which he would pray, and control, no longer is I, subdued no further is I, I sense the call a forever cry, He owns body and mind but not soul, time to take back what's rightfully mine,
what he stole,
A king in his own right but not mine, I finally see the light blessed by the blind, The human kind,

CHORUS:

The Alliance of both kingdoms,
Check mates the opposition,
I'm just a piece in this game,
A pond who won't listen,
A battle of war in this dimension,
A continuum that's shaken by competition,
NATURAL SELECTION!!!..
