I remember when we first got together
Everything was good with us
Everything was new to us
Now all we do is fight and fuss

And I've been thinking lately
I'm getting kinda tired
If you don't care
Why the hell I'm still here is beyond me

You can say what you want
But I'll tell you straight up
It don't mean a thing

Don't want to wait till it falls apart
Don't want to wait till it breaks my heart, baby

You used to hold me
Like you'd never let me go
There was a time I thought
I'd never be alone
So done with thinking
About the way you used to be
So you go do you
And I'm a do me

We've been running really fast out of love
And you know that I won't stay
Things just stayed the same
I'm getting tired of playing games

And I've been thinking maybe
The way that things are going
We'd be better off on our own
And you know it

You can say what you want
But I'll tell you straight up
It don't mean a thing

Don't want to wait till it falls apart
Don't want to wait till it breaks my heart, baby

You used to hold me
Like you'd never let me go
There was a time I thought
I'd never be alone
So done with thinking
About the way you used to be
So you go do you
And I'm a do me

You go and do your thing
And I'll be alright
When you start missing me
Remember it was you who drifted off
And honestly

Don't want to wait till it falls apart

You used to hold me
There was a time I thought
I'd never be alone
About the way you used to be
So you go do you, hey
So you go do you
And I'm a do me
