I was rolling along, minding my business
I didn't have a worry in this world

Then on up ahead on that big open road
My lights picked up a hitchhiking girl

Then it all happened with a hi ya hun
Can I give you a lift down the road

Can't take to fast, gotta learn to take it slow
I've got on a heavy load

She said that's alright big boy, take all the time you need
And by the way my name is Pearl

So I pulled in my rig at the next truckstop
Just me and my hitchhiking girl

(Instrumental)

Then it started again with a gee Ben
Oh you are sure big and strong

She purred like a kitten
And I was admitting that this affair just couldn't be wrong

Then my troubles became double with a friendly embrace
Man she really had me in a wherl

When I woke up a dawn, my wallet was gone
And so was my hitchhiking girl

Then it all ended with a what the Boy she really took me for a ride

Can't eat today, might as well be on my way
Just me and my busted pride

So I head out one more to broke to be poor
But a lesson I've learned from this girl

Now you can take it from me and the ICC
Don't ever trust a hitchhiking girl
