Piece of flesh

You left a stain here on the floor.

Are you coming back for more or what are you trying to say?

Now I'm afraid to spell it out,

but what is all this about?

I am trying to find my way.

Feels like you want an open door

but to be honest I'm not sure,

would you please care to explain?

I cannot wait forever more,

so come back and clean the floor

and take care of your stain.

I didn't know love carved so deep.

The piece of flesh it took from me.

An open wound that would not heal,

not even with the strongest seam.

If you could look me in the eye,

put the bullshit to the side,

let me know what's in your head.

Then maybe we could work it out,

baby we could leave those doubts.

Are you following what I say?

I know I also made you cry,

but you know the reason why

and I tried to make it up to you.

Guess it was already too late,

boy I know I made you wait

but do you think it's over?

I didn't know love carved so deep.

The piece of flesh it took from me.

An open wound that would not heal,

not even with the strongest seam.

And I've been asking myself why did I let you go away?

Do you wanna give it one more try, let's see what happens on the way.

On the way.

Guess I'll get over you one day,

but as long as you don't say anything I'll make things up in my mind.

Probably it's all obvious,

but God damn what a loss.

We could have been amazing.

I didn't know love carved so deep.

The piece of flesh it took from me.

An open wound that would not heal,

not even with the strongest seam.
