This is out of hand, you see
No actions seem to regenerate
One man army battle cry
Well, in darkness now it's so clear

The active surround you
Like rabid dogs, like stupid songs
Locked in a cage, could you cut your wrists
It's war on the world, this is your

Social meltdown
Everyday self-segregated now your life's a mess
Hangs like a cloud, all you see is the negative
You can't take one more breath

Social meltdown
I get ill but I just smoke the herb
Just drop that pill
Those black clouds will dissolve

This self-destructive scene
Force fed direction, force fed routine
Mind exhausted on everything
I see neurosis in the mirror

Duration, seclusion, mind like a bomb
The fuse is lit, the time has come
In my remission, I'll burn it all
You see these eyes take shelter

Social meltdown
Everyday self-segregated now your life's a mess
Hangs like a cloud, all you see is the negative
You can't take one more breath

Social meltdown
I get ill but I just smoke the herb
Just drop that pill
Those black clouds will dissolve

Seize the day
It's already yours, it's already yours

Seize the day
It's already yours, it's already yours

Seasons change, don't give up the fight
Don't sicken out, don't give up the fight
Seasons change, don't give up the fight
Don't sicken out, don't give up the fight
Seasons

Headphones check, hood up check
Got to hit the streets 'cause my mind's a wreck
Got the pepper spray in my reach
I'm in deep thought so don't go talking to me

If only you knew where I'm coming from
You'd run heaven, I need a hug
Up from the grave it's got to give
Just trying to keep my mind positive

Social meltdown
Everyday self-segregated now your life's a mess
Hangs like a cloud, all you see is the negative
You can't take one more breath

Social meltdown
I get ill but I just smoke the herb
Just drop that pill
Those black clouds will dissolve

Social meltdown
Those black clouds will dissolve
Seize the day
