"She Goes Away"

You said I'm polite but I am angry inside
I may serve you well but I wish you hell, oh yeah
Tried to escape, it all seemed so fake
Gotta keep'em dry, you lost the need to cry
The tears - Oh don't hold back your tears

She goes away
She won't show her face again
I will understand
She goes away

Playing my role, feel nothing at all
I screwed up the plan, but that's who I am, oh no
You fight for the right to live a lovely life
But then again it's the same old pain
The heart - Oh, it breaks your heart

She goes away
She won't show her face again
I will understand
She goes away

I have never seen the light
No one's got into my Soul
The more you hold inside the less there is to find

I got nothing to say
She goes away
