Don't you put your make-up on, you don't need it tonight
You can let your hair fall down
It'll look just right, I like you better
When it's not just pretend

Go and give your best friend back her favorite shoes
Take off your sister's dress
Baby, it's no use, I like you better
When it's not just pretend

Baby, you got me, you got me
There's no way to escape
Baby, you got me, you got me
This time it's more than fate

My heart is pumpin' out, no matter what you think
Baby, you got me, you got me
But that don't change a thing
No, it's not gonna change, no, no

Yeah, I like the silly jokes that you always tell
And the way that you smile
Thinking you're by yourself, I like you better
When it's not just pretend

Yeah, I love that you turn red when I whisper in your ear
And the way that you sing
Thinking no one can hear, I like you better
When it's not just pretend

Baby, you got me, you got me
There's no way to escape
Baby, you got me, you got me
This time it's more than fate

My heart is pumpin' out, no matter what you think
Baby, you got me, you got me
But that don't change a thing
No, it's not gonna change, no, no

The first time you caught me lookin'
Was the last time that you'd get away
Cause we both, we both know
I've seen the you that nobody ever gets to

I see the walls come up when you're feeling shy
And I wish that every day
We could say goodnight
I like you better when you, better when you

Baby, you got me, you got me
There's no way to escape
Baby, you got me, you got me
This time it's more than fate

My heart is pumpin' out, no matter what you think
Baby, you got me, you got me
But that don't change a thing
Baby you got me, you got me, don't let yourself forget

My heart is pumpin' out, no matter what you think
Baby, you got me, you got me
But that don't change a thing
No, it's not gonna change, it's not gonna change, no no
