

The Redwalls "Game Of Love"

Visit "Game Of Love" on MotoLyrics.com

I played the part, my friend,
I tried to break her and I don't know why.
But she's leaving me today,
It's so much clearer in the bright sunshine.
Well it seems like I've lost my touch,
I've said too much.
Try but you don't succeed in it,
She thought she'd change me but she just don't see.
She thought that I was the one,
But in the end, it's so plain to see.
Well it seems like I had it all,
I finally fall.
'Cause it's a sad day,
When you're losing your friend.
You gotta hold out,
Think of where it began.
But you're trying,
For it to be like it was,
But it's so hard,
For all the reasons above.
Enjoy and make your play
In this game of love.
I played the part, my friend,

I want to keep her but I don't know how.
But she said to me this way,

That it's better if we get things out,

Well it seems like this game ain't fair,

She doesn't care.
'Cause it's a sad day,

When you're losing your friend.

You gotta hold out,

And think of where it began.

You find you're trying,

For it to be like it was,

But now it's so hard,

For all the reasons above.

Everyone had their play,

In this game of love.
'Cause it's a sad day,

When you're losing your friend.

You gotta hold out,

And think of where it began.

You find you're trying,

For it to be like it was,

But now it's so hard,

For all the reasons above.

Everyone makes their play,

In this game of love.

Visit The Redwalls page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

