Well you don't want to go to school, it's alright
Well now, you're tired of playing the rules, it's alright
Well I see ya coming 'round here about midnight,
Telling me that everything's alright.
Well I'm born, and I die, and I live to get high on mine

It's alright
It's alright

He's a man in an awful way
But he will help you everyday
He's a man in an awful way
He's man that'll take you all the way, hey!

Well you don't want to go to school, it's alright
Oh you're so tired of playing the rules, it's alright
Well I've been stuck in my (something),
And I can't hardly move no more.
Well I'm born, and I die, and I live to get by

It's alright
It's alright

He's a man in an awful way
But he will help you everyday
He's a man in an awful way
He'll take you back where you want to stay

(oh, you're alright)

It's alright
