You said you're looking for someone that understands
you,
You said you have not found love yet.
But if you're looking so hard, come on home.

I've been trying so hard to forget you
But you keep playing in my mind
Come on, come on, baby won't you come on home
On the telephone

When you called it was all the same old game
And we've been making up
What's your name?
And we've been shaking up
But it goes on

It's love you're on
It's love you're on
It's love you're on

Hold me close,
And let me be the one to hold you tight tonight little girl
But if you're looking so hard, come on home

When you called it was all the same old game,
And we've been making up
What's your name?
And we've been shaking up
But it goes on

It's love you're on
It's love you're on
It's love you're on

Hold me close, ow!

When you called it was all the same old game,
And we've been making up
What's your name?
And we've been shaking up
But it goes on

It's love you're on
It's love you're on
It's love you're on
