Well I have regret and bad ideas
Along with my goals and all of my dreams orbiting around my head
Yes I am the center of my everything

And I am reminded of how life
Such a maze of upside down escapade
As I wave to the future that pays it's way Hold me up like a hurricane

And I have my very own mountain range of mistakes in the brain
A headache today
And a trigger for all that pain come tomorrow

And I have some dreams that might seem strange
Better up on the inside
They're to mellow the pain
Like an a aspirin for the sorrow

But it seems no matter how many times
Opportunity knocks or drops a line
I find myself with the enemy
Unavoidably detained
A day late
Everyday

Well I have Neglected all my fears along with my family and careers for my goals
Am I an asshole
Yes I am
And I live in denial about how people aren't what they seem in life's masquerade
As I smile to the faces that change their shape
Yep, like a hurricane

And I have my very own carousel of heartache I'dl ike to sell
But these days...
Buyers are only looking to borrow
And I have some visions 100% freshly squeezed, deranged

Ready to microwave into action for tomorrow

But it seems no matter how many times
Opportunity knocks or drops a line
Well I find myself with the enemy
Unavoidably detained

Sad, it seems whenever lady luck's on my side
Fate throws me a reason without a rhyme
And I find myself standing here again
Unavoidably detained

And it seems no matter how many times
Opportunity knocks or drops a line
I find myself with the enemy
Unavoidable lady

Yeah, you
Kiss me tender
Future surrender
You're soul to me tonight
Cause I am mostly coasting
While overdosing on anxiety from your vibe

And I am breaking you down as you crumble
And I am breaking you down, come on crumble
And I am taking you down bitch
Fall to the ground
And I'm ready to take your crown
Oh, not again

So it seems no matter how many times
Opportunity knocks or drops a line
I find myself with the enemy
Unavoidably, yeah...
So it seems whenever lady luck's on my side
Fate throws me a reason without a rhyme
I find myself standing here again
Unavoidably detained, detained

Let me go, let me go, let me go, let me go
Wanna catch that wave
Gonna catch that wave
