Have you read any good books lately?
Any sci-fi? Or a romance novel?
And have you noticed the weather, and how it's always in style?
And always totally unpredictable?
And she said...

Chorus

You're pretty
Gorgeous to the bone
You're pretty...
...'cause being attractive and beautiful
To live life so lush and wonderful
Is the only way to go
She commented on my smile and said
That I've got the million dollar grin
But it's lost within the puzzle of my personality
And that trend and fashion could help me
Become the man
Make me the man
So I am the man
But I don't care about all that Don't really seem to care about all that
And that's when she said straight to me

Chorus

BOOM... FOR REAL
You could be so (5x)
You could be, you could be, you could be

Chorus

BOOM... FOR REAL
You could be so goddamn, you really could be so
goddamn
You could be so, you could be so, you could be so goddamn
Pretty.
