I've got you in my sights my advisory
I'm your indian painted face in feathers
Be my cowgirl wrapped with leather and love
Look forward to fighting you forever

We are bound by more than just
Two hearts living without consequence
This almost changes everything
Like promises made in vain

We don't need to settle down we live our lives upside down
To figure out we are just like love and war baby(x2)
We are love and war

Sharing secrets we're both spies and lovers
With these weapons that won't break the skin
Pulling triggers bundled undercover
Surviving only cause niether wants to win

We are bound by more than just
Two hearts living without consequence
This almost changes everything
Like promises made in vain

down
To figure out we are just like love and war baby(x2)
Baby, you bring me down

We wake up break up make up fall asleep and do this all again(x3)
We are bound by than just these secrets here, it's where we started

Come on what we waiting for?
All is fair in love and war
I'll gladly do this all again
I'll gladly do this all again
