you'll never live again
let me tell you a story of what once was life overrated looking for something and i
i cannot turn away
i cannot fall in love
because i, i cant believe what you said and everybody can change and everybody can make something so maybe
i think im going crazy

'coz if your looking for something
someone you love now
someone you fight for, some
i think im breaking up
maybe
i think im going crazy

take control
take control
take control
take control
I'm taking control now
taking control now
take control
take control

what she said, she's never going back to where she wants to be
so maybe

i think im going crazy

take control

take control
take control
be what you wanted to be taking control
taking control now
taking control
taking control now
take control
take control
take control
take control

so maybe

uhoh
