He was lying banged and battered, skewered and bleeding talking crippled on the Cross Was his mind reeling and heaving hallucinating fleeing what a loss The things he hadn't touched or kissed his senses slowly stripped away Not like Buddha not like Vishnu life wouldn't rise through him again I find it easy to believe That he might question his beliefs
The Beginning of the Last Temptation Dime Store Mystery
The duality of nature, Godly nature, human nature splits the soul Fully human, fully divine and divided the great immortal soul Split into pieces, whirling pieces, opposites attract From the front, the side, the back
The mind itself attacks
I know this feeling, I know it from before Descartes through Hegel Belief is never sure Dime Store Mystery, Last Temptation
I was sitting drumming thinking thumping pondering the Mysteries of Life Outside the city shrieking screaming whispering
the Mysteries of Life
There's a funeral tomorrow at St Patrick's the bells will ring for you What must you have been thinking when you realized the time had come for you I wish I hadn't thrown away my time on so much Human and so much less Divine
The end of the Last Temptation
The end of a Dime Store Mystery
