Well, you covered your tracks and now I can't see you You had your ashes scattered at sea There's no grave to visit no tombstone to look at
You were in the NY Times obituary
There's no record no tape no book no movie
Some photographs and memories Sometimes I dial your phone number by mistake and this is what I hear
This is no longer a working number baby
Please redial your call
This is no longer a working number
Your party doesn't live here anymore
This is no longer a working number if you still require help Stay on the line and an operator will try to bail you out I knew I should have seen you that Thursday
I knew I shouldn't have left But you sounded so good your spirits so up I thought I'd see you next week I say over and over if I had half a brain if I had half a brain in my head I wouldn't sit here dialing a wrong number and listening to what some recording said I knew I should have written, written things down
I always say I'll never forget Who can forget a one-eyed pilot Who's a concert pianist A painter a poet a songwriter supreme My friends are blending in my head They're melding into one great spirit and that spirit isn't dead Now I may not remember everything that you said but I remember all the things you've done And not a day goes by not an hour when I don't try to be like you You were gassed, stoked and rarin' to go and you were that way all the time So I guess you know why I'm laughing at myself every time I dial the wrong line
This is no longer a working number baby
