If I sent you home would you come again
And if I said farewell is that where you begin
And if I sent you home would you come on in
And if you say you won't then I know you will

I was all alone like a father with no son
You were like a dream
Woken up just as begun
I was left alone
With the promise that you made

All i want to do is make it over you
I want to
All i want to do is make it over you
I want to

And if i said farewell then we're on our own
You know i never thought i'd say the words
But you know you can't have all the hurt

I was all alone like a father with no son
You were like a dream
Woken up just as begun
I was left alone
With the promise that you made

All i want to do is make it over you
I want to
All i want to do is make it over you
I want to

All i want to do
Is step up for you
Tell me is it true
I will come back to you
I said i would

All i want to do is make it over you
I want to
All i want to do is make it over you
I want to

All i want to do is make it over you
I want to
All i want to do is make it over you
I want to
