I was the one who could eat a full plate
You picked me up and put me back in my place
Slow is the path that does lead to addiction
Bored is my mind and it's spoke disillusion
No matter where you are
No matter near or far
I've seen the place I want to be
It's one step further
Just like Marathon man
It seems so true to me
I've seen the place I want to be
And I can't get there
You are my days
And my nights are spent in chase
You entered me
And my life was replaced
