Visit "Together" on MotoLyrics.com

Does anybody care for us?
Does anybody need for us?
Will anybody take an offered hand?
Does anybody give for us?

"Man you're so strong?
What a thing to say
But I'm sorry I need you today

But if I go, then when I'm back
I will show you what you got
Maybe wrong, and that's no lie
We should be together, man, you know it

Won't you pass around tolerance today
Inside your head you're so fucked up
I see you straight

So if I go, then when I'm back
I will show you what you've got
Maybe wrong, and that's no lie
We should be together, man, you know it

So take me home, sweet home
