I spent two weeks collecting memories
Just cant believe that
I might never see you again
Ill never have friends like these Tonight I will cry a single tear for Everyday that I stand here
Its all the people I call my friends
Now its the end
Time went winding by
Its time to say goodbye
Ill sing her in a song before I leave
Remind me please
Ill send you my cd's
Tell me Emily how your life is treating you
I miss you too
So you say goodbye to Amy
Give a hug to Leslie
See how things end up
When our schedules are free
I wish you never happend
When we look up all the way
Guess Ill let her tell me
Ive loved her since last year
But ive been too afraid to say
Until today
Ya ya ya ya
Whoa Oh
This time now you wont let me fall
You wont let me fall
You wont let me fall
You wont let me fall
You wont let me fall back down
You wont let me fall too far
