Please give me a sign
Tell me I'm fine
And that you won't leave
Cause I'm all alone
I'm holding these stones
I just wish my hands would let go
I've lost all desire
Cold's gone my fire

Give me a thread of hope
And I will sew tapestries
Give me a place to go
And show me what I can be

Please unveil these eyes
I know that I'm blind
And I long to see
Open my ears
Help me to hear you speak
Help me to know why I fear
All I desire
And now I'm so tired

Give me a thread of hope
And I will sew tapestries
Give me a place to go
And show me what I can be

Tell me I'm fine
Help me to see
That I'll be alright
And you'll never leave
