Take another hundred names and put 'em on a list
And curse yourself forever watching it
I'm looking to have to see it to the end
Coz the fastest rat is always gonna win

You've gotta know to hustle, to make it in this town
Coz competition stiffens every night
Take another hundred and put 'em in your hand
Present the prize and not the ambulance

You've got a certain spark
You've got to show it off
What are you waiting for?
They've been expecting you
I've got the brightest spark
So nothing blow it out
What are you waiting for?
They've been expecting your call

She walks on red carpets all the time
In my eyes
Others will stop at her clothes
Coming up they will talk, let 'em talk
Because you've given them just what they want

Harder than a drama
Softer than a porn
Oh come and fill the purse a little more
You've got something special
(you've got something special)
Put it on the air
(put it on the air)
Humiliation pays well by the chair

You've got a certain spark
You've got to show it off
What are you waiting for?
They've been expecting you
What have you been waiting for?
They've been expecting your call

She walks on red carpets all the time
In my eyes
Others will scoff at her clothes
Coming up they will talk, let 'em talk
Because she's given them just what they want
Given them just what they want
Yeah, you've given them just what they want

He'll do most anything
You'll do most anything for the camera
A mil for a wedding ring
A bow for embarrassing yourself
Keep that camera rolling, baby
What are you waiting for?
Cuz we've been waiting for you
Oh, what are you waiting for?
(wait for it)
They've been expecting your call

x2
She walks on red carpets all the time
In my eyes, in my eyes
Others will scoff at her clothes
Coming up they will talk, let 'em talk
Because you've given them just what they want
