Paths are there
For us to follow
This is gospel I believe
Angels are around us flying
Truth and mercy to receive

Pictures of uncommon nature
Painted by a masters hand
Draw me ever
On life's journey
Rendered thus to understand

As a songbird
That is fallen
Only to regain the sky
From this frozen shadow
Vally lay my weary head

Love is from
No distance calling
Faithful as the rising sun
Warms the bitter heart
And heartache
Till the east of Eden's gone

Clouds of fear
And misconception
Wax and wane as if the moon
So is in a sense forsaken
Till the will of God be known

As a songbird
That is fallen
Only to regain the sky
From this frozen shadow
Vally lay my weary head
