When I get home
Unplug the phone
Turn out the lights
I serve this song
I'm gonna call my baby
Tell him that I'm coming
See, I been gone for way too long
He needs some lovin'
See last night on the phone
He told me that he missed me (Â...told me that he missed meÂ...)
And I listened to his song, it sounded kinda sexy (Check it out, I said, um, I saidÂ...)
My baby on the job, I know she's workin hard, she independent and I love that show, I swear to God
The way she get up in it, no she aint really got no fear
No I don't make it rain, but still I'm the one that got her bed
I need her all at once, I been on tour for months
Her body like a stage, as soon as I hit, I tore it up
She love how I perform, come get a hype like her favorite song
We riders of the storm, touch me baby like the dawn Ooooh, said I just can't wait till the nighttime comes and I see my baby Ooooh, said I just can't wait till the midnight hour and I see myÂ...
I'll be home tonight
I'll be by his side
Can't wait till the night begin, can't wait to let her in,
Ready to handle this, the candle's lit, the light's is dim So dark be Innervision, and she might lose her and inhibitions, hourglass figure make it last past ten Four hours last long no inhibition
I'll come every once in a while, just to let her know her love in town
I'm here to stay so there ain't no way I know she love the sound of that I'll make her love come down to earth, that's worth another round

Can't take another clown, in love with the kid cause he underground

Ooooooh, said I just can't wait till the nighttime comes
and I see my baby Ooooooh, said I just can't wait till the midnight hour and I
see myÂ...
I'll be home tonight
I'll be by his side
Somebody call my baby, say I'm on the way now (Â... say I'm on myÂ...)
See, I been going crazy thinking 'bout you late nights (Â...thinkin' bout you late nightsÂ...)
The way my heart reacts it lets me know I need him (Baby, I need you tooÂ...)
See I been getting flashbacks, I just got to see him (Â...
I just gotta see himÂ...)
(Lemme tell ya what she did) Hopped out the taxicab, she almost didn't pay, he let me get your bags, I got some things to say I know you miss me girl, you know I miss you too, we kissing taking turns, let's go to the room Ooooooh, said I just can't wait till the nighttime comes
and I see my baby Ooooooh, said I just can't wait till the midnight our and I
see myÂ...
I'll be home tonight
I'll be by his side
When I get home
Unplug the phone
Turn out the lights
I serve this song
He said when you get home
Unplug the phone
The lights is off
You know its on (know its on) Ooooh that I made it home, baby lock that door and be ready for me
Ooooh and it's been some months and we don't have long but I'm here now
I made it home tonight
I'll be by your side
Don't worry 'bout the time
I made it home tonight
