You say the problems don't concern you
Well, wake the fuck up cause they really do
How many ways are society going to fuck it up?
How many lies until we had enough?

We gotta start to care about the consequences
Take a look around, it doesn't make any sense
Pollution, oppression, violence and destruction
Lies, deceit, poverty and corruption

Our ignorance has made us blind
To the problems that we are facing
Our indifference, our tolerance
Makes me sick

Our ignorance has made us blind
To the problems that we are facing
Our indifference, our tolerance
Makes me sick

Our ignorance has made us blind
To the problems that we are facing
Our indifference, our tolerance
Makes me fucking sick

Indoctrinate lies
Covering our eyes
Mold us into the mainstream
Taking our lives

We've gotta break these chains
We've gotta break these chains
We've gotta break these chains

Our ignorance has made us blind
To the problems that we are facing
Our indifference, our tolerance
Makes me sick
Our ignorance has made us blind
To the problems that we are facing
Our indifference, our tolerance
Makes me fucking sick
